

I wish to support the above referenced petition, to expand the operating privileges of Novice and Tech Plus Amateur Radio licensees. While I am familiar with electronics, I do not believe that advanced skills in electronics should be required, when the real art of radio now is how you use it, not how you build it.